

Welcome to the Mountain Iron Public Library

Help us continue to provide a culture of community, learning and inclusion.

Be considerate of Others

Behavior which may disturb others or interfere with their right to use the library is prohibited, including physical or verbal harassment.

Communicate with Respect

Loud, obscene, abusive or threatening language will not be tolerated.

Act Responsibly

Any act or conduct in violation of federal, state or local law or library policy is prohibited.

Use the Library as Intended

Smoking, drinking alcoholic beverages or displaying intoxicated behavior in the library or on library grounds is not permitted.

Failure to abide by these guidelines may result in the loss of library privileges. Library staff will contact law enforcement if necessary.

The Mountain Iron Public Library, representing the City of Mountain Iron in Minnesota, supports free speech and a safe environment for all; will listen, be inclusive and look for common ground; will respect others, our natural environment, and local communities; will respect the cultural heritage and history of the indigenous people; and will be accountable for words and actions and abide by the law. (2023)

